

I WILL

© Linda Lamon 2004

You'll always be my friend
'Cos you know just what to do
When I'm happy, lonely sad or blue
You comfort hold and trust
On days when I am lost
I'm so lucky being loved by you.

Chorus

You pledged your love to me
As the sun went down
By the cross, for all the world to see
The wind was blowing warm,
Midsummer sky cerise and still
That evening when I said I will.

Instrumental

My blue eyes fill with tears
When I think of all the years
We've shared so many wonderful things
You kept your promise true
With all that loving brings
I'm so lucky being loved by you.
