

THE BADGER AND THE WREN

by Linda Lamon © 2014

Welcome to my home - said the badger to the wren
We'll watch the sun go down - and the tree's glow again
We'll feel the evening breeze - and colours of the night
Will rest with gentle ease - on the blackbirds tuneful flight

Chorus

We are creatures of the wood - at one with the earth
Natures friends - greatly love - born free to know our worth

INSTRUMENTAL

Middle

If tomorrow I do not wake - please don't be afraid
Sing as the dawn breaks - and remember what I said

CHORUS

We are creatures of the wood - at one with the earth
Natures friends - greatly love - born free to know our worth

(Instrumental 2)

CHORUS

We are creatures of the wood - at one with the earth
Natures friends - greatly love - born free to know our worth
Born free to know our worth
